Recruitify is on a mission to organize information for amateur athletics

Registration is free. Create a new account or login using the menu in the right corner!

Recruitify has been a very helpful resource for our program. Registering for events, paying tournament fees and having accurate information for college coaches is a much easier process with Recruitify. I believe that once everyone sees how beneficial Recruitify is to all parties in the college recruiting world that it will replace all other methods.
